

THE CRUSADES

Use the Crusades notes to create a Crusades recruitment poster. The project should include all of the following:

1. A catchy title that includes a slogan. For example, "Join the Crusades to Win Back the Holy Land!"
2. A definition of the Crusades
3. A map of the Crusades, showing a land route and a sea route. Label the Mediterranean Sea, the Black Sea, and Constantinople.
4. A list of at least three causes of the Crusades.
5. An explanation of why the Pope called for Christians to fight
6. A description of who went to fight in the Crusades as a result of the Pope's request
7. A short description of four Crusades including the outcome.
8. An explanation of the results of the Crusades and how the Crusades affected the feudal system in Europe.

The Recruitment Poster Requirements

- The purpose of this poster is to entice Christians to join the last Crusade. Use language that is persuasive!
- Establish a place on the recruitment poster that details the history of the previous Crusades (see requirement 7 above).
- Be creative, and the poster should be colorful.
- Make sure that 1-8 above are included in the recruitment poster for full credit.
